Arts and Cultural Committee

ARTS AND CULTURAL COMMITTEE - Established by City Council in 2010, under Martinsville City Code Section 2-109 through 2-118, the Arts and Cultural Committee works to enhance the Arts/Cultural District in the City of Martinsville. The Arts and Cultural Committee reports to the Planning Commission and works with the Architectural Review Board. The Committee consists of 11 members serving three-year terms appointed by City Council.

To ensure stakeholder involvement and input, members include:

Representative from Piedmont Arts Association/Studio 107

Representative from the Virginia Museum of Natural History

Representative from Southern Virginia Artisan Center

Representative from the MHC Historical Society

Representative from the Architectural Review Board

Representative from the EDC

Representative from MURA

Representative from TheatreWorks

A City Business Owner

2 Citizens

Community Development will serve as Secretary and the Committee elects a Chairman and Vice Chairman from among its members. The Committee meets on an as-needed basis. Ordinance adopted Sept. 24, 2013:

Sec. 2-126. Purpose. The City of Martinsville finds that the continued development and success of its downtown commercial district and surround area requires incentives, and determines that the most appropriate method of offering incentives for the area described is to create an Arts and Cultural District in that area, as authorized by Section 15.2-1129.1 of the Code of Virginia. The City believes that the establishment of an Arts and Cultural District will improve the economic conditions of this geographic area located in the central business district portion and corridors to the central business district, which could, in turn, benefit the welfare of the citizens of Martinsville. An advisory Arts and Cultural Committee, consisting of five eleven members appointed by City Council for staggered three year terms, shall suggest the direction and purpose of the district.

TERMS: Each committee member will serve staggered terms of three years in duration.

PIEDMONT REGIONAL COMMUNITY SERVICES BOARD

PIEDMONT REGIONAL COMMUNITY SERVICES BOARD – The Board is composed of twelve members serving three-year terms; two are appointed by City Council. The Board was created in 1972 and operates under the licensing authority of the Virginia Department of Mental Health. The Board is a quasi-public body with the mandate to plan, implement, and coordinate a comprehensive system of mental health, mental retardation, and substance abuse services. The area covered is Martinsville and the Counties of Henry, Franklin, and Patrick. The Board is a policy-making board with full decision-making authority, and the staff work for the Board. An interest in the Board's work is probably the major "selection" criteria for Board membership. Some experience and knowledge of the target populations is helpful. Meetings are typically held in Martinsville on the fourth Monday evening of each month at 7:00 P. M., although there is some variation in schedule.

TERMS: Board regulations state that members may not be appointed to more than three full terms. Members serve three-year terms.

POWER ADVISORY COMMITTEE

appointed by City Council October 12, 2010

Purpose: This is a citizen committee selected by application to City Council and appointed to serve as members of the Power Advisory Committee for the purpose of evaluating City participation in a Natural Gas Combined Cycle (NGCC) generation plant being built by American Municipal Power Inc. (AMP) in Meigs County, Ohio. Participation in the project will consist of City Council authorizing the execution of a Power Sales Contract which will obligate the City to purchase power from the generation plant for a pre-determined time frame.

Scope of Work

Review of NGCC Offering

Over the next few weeks AMP will release member packets containing information related to participation in the NGCC generation project including:

- A NGCC Feasibility Study (not for public release)
- A subscription letter from AMP recommending a level of participation (KW) by the City in the project
- A Beneficial Use Analysis by R. W. Beck (not for public release)

Much of the information provided by AMP is confidential and cannot be shared publically as doing so could affect AMP's negotiating position on this project and future projects. Committee members will be required to honor the confidentiality agreement between the City and AMP and withhold from public release certain information deemed confidential by AMP and its membership.

Additional information will be made available to the Power Advisory Committee after a thorough analysis of the project offering is conducted by GDS Associates Inc. GDS will provide an overview of the project and recommendation to the Committee upon completion of its review.

The Power Advisory Committee will be charged with the task of analyzing the provided data, selecting a committee spokesperson and delivering a recommendation to City Council.

Power Advisory Committee Support Staff

The committee will have access to City staff consisting of City Manager, Clarence Monday, Director of Electrical Operations, Dennis Bowles and professional support by Duane Dahlquist P.E., General Manager of Blue Ridge Power Agency which will be available to provide a project overview and answer questions as necessary.
